Introduction

Nothing is more exciting or more difficult than trying to teach the majesty and depth of Christ in a few short pages. These lessons are an attempt to help disciples make disciples. Our prayer is that each reader would be brought face to face with Jesus and become as we are—radical, fired-up, crazy-in-love-with Jesus disciples. While any human attempt is completely inadequate to save people, we hope that you will see past the pages of this study, past even the pages of the Bible, and see the God who set everything in motion. Focus on Jesus is dedicated to the Father who planned it all, to Jesus who gave it all, and to the Holy Spirit who fills the earth with His presence. It is presented to learners and to learners who teach, that together we might win as many as possible. All glory be to God, forever and ever! Amen.
